

Who's Who - Explanation of Roles

Title IX Coordinator

The Title IX Coordinator is the College official responsible for coordinating the College's efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX"), which prohibits sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct, in education programs and activities for institutions that receive federal financial assistance, as well as retaliation for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege protected by Title IX. The Title IX Coordinator's responsibilities include overseeing all reports of sexual harassment or sex-based discrimination, performing investigations, gathering documentation, disseminating information, and addressing any patterns or systematic problems that arise.

At all times, the Title IX Coordinator will maintain the highest level of privacy regarding all reports of sexual discrimination and/or sexual harassment. While the College strictly prohibits the disclosure of private information obtained through an investigation, circumstances may arise when law and/or policy requires the disclosure of sensitive information.

The Title IX Coordinator will evaluate requests for confidentiality by those who report or complain about sexual misconduct in the context of the College's responsibility to provide safe and welcoming campus environment for all students, faculty, and staff, from discrimination based on sex.

The College has designated the following individual as the Title IX Coordinator:

Megan Wilson
Vice President of Regulatory Affairs
8580 Evans Ave.
Berkeley, MO 63134
Phone: 314-264-1874
Email: titleixcoordinator@vatterott.edu

When to contact the Title IX Coordinator:

1. File a complaint or make a report of sexual harassment and sex-based discrimination, including sexual violence;
2. Seek information or training about rights and available actions to resolve reports or complaints involving potential sex discrimination or sexual harassment;
3. Notify the College of an incident, policy, or procedure that may raise potential Title IX concerns;
4. Get information about available resources (including confidential resources) and support services relating to sex discrimination or sexual harassment; and
5. Ask questions about the College's policies and procedures related to sexual misconduct.

Title IX Officer

The College has designated a Title IX Officer, whom is authorized to receive reports of sexual harassment and sex-based discrimination. The Title IX Officer has the obligation to report all complaints of sexual harassment and sex-based discrimination to the Title IX Coordinator. To the extent possible, the Title IX Officer will maintain the highest level of privacy regarding all reports of sexual discrimination and/or sexual harassment, circumstances may arise when law and/or policy requires the disclosure of sensitive information.

Please note the Title IX Officer also serves as the College's Campus Director.

Title IX Deputy Coordinator (Illinois Campuses Only)

The Title IX Deputy Coordinator is authorized to receive and resolve reports of sexual harassment and sex-based discrimination. The Title IX Deputy Coordinator also has the duty to report all complaints of sexual harassment and sex-based discrimination to the Title IX Coordinator. To the extent possible, Title IX Deputy Coordinator will maintain the highest level of privacy regarding all reports of sexual discrimination and/or sexual harassment, circumstances may arise when law and/or policy requires the disclosure of sensitive information.

Responsible Employees & Mandated Reporters

All Vatterott employees are "responsible employees," whom have the obligation to communicate reports of sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator. To the extent possible, information reported to a responsible employee will be shared only with Vatterott officials responsible for handling the College's response to the report, including the Title IX Coordinator.

All Vatterott employees are also "mandated reporters" under the Abused & Neglected Child Reporting Act and the Clery Act. Accordingly, any Vatterott employee who becomes aware of or suspects sexual abuse of a minor (under the age of 17) must report that information to the Title IX Coordinator, who shall then inform local, state, and/or federal law enforcement officials of such incident as required by law.

Confidential Advisors (Illinois Campuses Only)

Confidential advisors to not have a mandatory reporting duty under Title IX, and do not have to reveal any identifying information about the report to the College. Any and all communication to these confidential advisors is privileged and confidential. Please note, that while the confidential advisors may maintain a victim's confidentiality vis-à-vis the College, they may have a reporting or other obligations under State law (e.g. mandatory reporting to law enforcement in case of minors; imminent harm to self or others).
